

Content Creator

Location: Bristol/Hybrid

Salary: £28,000–£32,000 FTC

About Us:

Dull doesn't cut it here. We craft bold, original social content and campaigns for high-profile global clients, and we need someone who matches that energy.

We're looking for a talented, confident Content Creator to join our growing team. Reporting into the Managing Director and Social Director, you'll produce high-quality content that brings our clients' brands to life across multiple platforms, and you'll be ready to regularly travel internationally when the work calls for it.

This role involves international travel, supporting our global client partnerships face-to-face when it matters most. This isn't an everyday project, or everyday brand - this is a subject matter that is important to everyone.

Key Responsibilities:

- Plan, shoot, and edit engaging social first content
- Operate both smartphone and professional camera equipment with ease and confidence.
- Lead shoots, managing on-set logistics, and bringing creative direction to life.
- Collaborate with the Hurricane Social Production and Social teams to develop ideas and concepts.
- Manage video projects from conception to final delivery, including all post-production.
- Ensure all content meets clients' brand standards and quality expectations.
- Travel internationally as required to support global client shoots and productions.

Requirements:

- At least 3 years' experience in a social agency, regularly producing and editing high-quality content.
- Proven ability to create compelling video on both professional cameras and smartphones.
- Strong editing skills across industry-standard software (e.g. Adobe Premiere Pro, Final Cut Pro, or similar)
- Confident on-set presence with strong interpersonal skills and a sharp creative eye for composition and storytelling.
- Solid understanding of social media platforms, content formats, and what performs.
- Ability to manage multiple projects independently and consistently meet deadlines.

Nice to Have:

- Motion graphics, design or animation skills.
- Photography skills.

How to Apply:

Please send your CV, a short cover letter, and a portfolio of your video work to steph@hurricanesocial.com.

Notes:

Kindly no recruitment agencies please, any agencies outreaching directly to the Hurricane Social team will not be considered should we need to take roles to external parties.
